

BFA Curriculum 2016-17

The undergraduate curriculum is divided into conceptually based courses and media- based courses, fully acknowledging that neither concept nor media can be presented independently of the other. Studio courses comprise over 60 percent of study and academic courses comprise the remainder. This integrated curriculum ensures that all students experience consistent training of the highest quality in a variety of approaches to making contemporary art.

After the freshman year, students begin choosing university electives. After the first semester of the sophomore year, students have increasing options regarding the sequencing and selection of their coursework.
