c/o Tom Justofin
Carnegie Mellon University
5000 Forbes Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15213-3890

ELIGIBILITY:

Any full-time, returning undergraduate or graduate student of Carnegie Mellon School of Art is eligible. After completion of travel, THE C.G. DOUGLAS "WRONG WAY" CORRIGAN SUMMER TRAVEL FELLOWSHIP recipient will present a lecture of his or her findings in a public forum at Carnegie Mellon University, before March 8th, 2017.

APPLICATION:

Application for THE C.G. DOUGLAS "WRONG WAY" CORRIGAN SUMMER TRAVEL FELLOWSHIP should come in the form of a self-directed proposal outlining the travel plans, describing the goals of the travel experience in relation to the student's education, and, where relevant, describing the relationship of the goals to the student's academic interests, extracurricular activities, and professional aspirations. Proposals must be sufficiently challenging to merit support, and well-organized to prove that they are clearly feasible. The proposal should be an original study or experience, and not part of an institutionalized or established structure such as study abroad. The proposal should be no more than 5 typed pages. It should include a detailed itinerary and budget, and may also offer other supporting materials to clarify the proposal as necessary. The applicant's name and contact information should be located at the top of the first page; please also include the contact information for two faculty members or other individual references with whom the selection committee may consult if they have questions about the proposal. The selection committee will consist of the Head and Associate Head of the School of Art, the Dean of the College of Fine Arts and an invited member of the Pittsburgh art community.

The committee will reserve the right to give partial funding rather than granting the entire amount requested. In the event that none of the submitted proposals are deemed to be of sufficient quality, the award would not be granted. The awardee will be announced at the School of Art "End of Year Awards Ceremony & Picnic" on Friday, May 5th, 2017.
